Community Action Agencies

Community Action Agencies are nonprofit or public organizations that were created by the federal government in 1964 to combat poverty in geographically designated areas. Status as a Community Action Agency is the result of an explicit designation by local or state government. A Community Action Agency has a tripartite board structure that is designed to promote the participation of the entire community in the reduction or elimination of poverty. Community Action Agencies seek to involve the community, including elected public officials, private sector representatives, and especially low-income residents in assessing local needs and attacking the causes and conditions of poverty.

Who We Are

EnAct Community Action is one of 16 West Virginia Governor's designated Community Action Agencies offering a wide variety of services to the low income residents of Boone, Clay, Fayette, Kanawha, and Putnam counties.
